SHAREJET ANNOUNCES WORLDWIDE PARTNERSHIP WITH HYATT

Hong Kong - 28th January 2004 - Business aircraft charter operator ShareJet today announced an international marketing partnership with Hyatt International Hotels and Resorts. The new partnership agreement will see ShareJet and Hyatt expand their relationship by initiating cross-marketing efforts to offer clients simplified access to personalized private air transportation and hotel services.

Through this cooperative relationship, Hyatt will extend the scope of ShareJet's uniquely luxurious private air travel services to encompass gourmet in-flight catering services as well as ground transfer and accommodation arrangements. Working together internationally, it is anticipated that this partnership will prove popular with time-pressed business leaders who participate in conferences and seminars held at Hyatt hotels around the world, and with individuals in the entertainment industry whose touring or filming schedules require meticulous planning and strict confidentiality.

"We are delighted to take our relationship to an entirely new level," said Yeet Jones, ShareJet Regional Director of Marketing China. "ShareJet can now link its marketing efforts with Hyatt, the No. 1 Business Hotel brand in the world (Business Traveler Asia Pacific Readers Poll 2003), to provide a comprehensive service that offers our clients essential real time savings not only in terms of planning and booking their unique travel arrangements but also in coordinating ground arrangements including first class accommodation, limousine transfers, functions, meetings and even catering with minimum external involvement."

"By keeping the level of involvement to a minimum, arrangements become efficient and seam free and our client's confidentiality is protected at all times, which is essential to the high level of service expected by our clients and graciously delivered by both ShareJet and Hyatt."

Sole operators of the worlds most luxurious and modern business jet, the new generation Boeing Business Jet (BBJ) for private charter in the Asian – Pacific Rim region, ShareJet operates business charters internationally as well as exclusive aviation programs. The 18 seat BBJ is configured for optimum comfort and efficiency with a private office, conference / dining room, spacious lounge, stateroom with queen size bed and two bathrooms, each with a full size shower and is equipped with the most modern entertainment, communications and flight systems.

With a range of approximately 12.5hrs non stop flight time, the BBJ provides efficient and time-saving solutions in sumptuous surroundings for the busy executive. Combined with a premium and personal onboard service, guests are effortlessly transported to global destinations.

"The combination of one the world's leading hotel brands with ShareJet's elite air charter services creates powerful synergy," confirmed Grahame Carder, Vice President - Marketing, Hyatt International Asia Pacific. "The global capabilities of both companies and compatibility of services presents a unique opportunity to leverage the strengths of both brands globally."

"Hyatt's partnership with ShareJet demonstrates the depth of Hyatt's commitment to exceeding guest expectations and to maintaining its position at the fore of the industry," added Carder.

ShareJet is a joint venture between Tokyo based Nissho Iwai Corporation who heads the marketing effort with their 120 global offices and ACI Pacific LLC, the aircraft operator with headquarters in Guam, ShareJet was launched this year and received delivery of the first BBJ in October 2003.

Operating under strict US FAA (Federal Aviation Authority) regulations with a part 135 charter certificate, ShareJet aircraft are also maintained under US FAR 145 (Federal Aviation Regulations) standards.

Enquiries and requests for quotes can be directed to a local Nissho Iwai office, Regional representative or ACI Pacific in Guam. All contact details and online requests can be found on website www.sharejet.biz
